Welcome to the web home of Bridgeton, North Carolina. As mayor, I can say that with a great deal of pride for I believe our town to be as near to perfect southern living as we can come.

We are located on the north-east bank of the Neuse River, and most of us feel we are on the "right" side of the river and the spectacular sunsets bear this out. Bridgeton has many things to be proud of and I'd like to point out just a few for you.

Bridgeton is renowned for its excellent blueberries. If you are lucky enough to be in the area in June or July, a visit to the roadside blueberry stands alone makes the drive worthwhile.

There are excellent meat markets and interesting restaurants which invite you to drop in to relax and refresh. And we have businesses and shops unavailable anywhere else in the area.

We are home to a notable art festival, Bridgeton Riverfest, which is held at the world class Bridgeton Harbor Marina during the third weekend in June. Even without the fine art on display, the yachts and sailboats are a glorious sight to behold, and the cruisers and sailors add an interesting cultural mix to the local population.

We have figured importantly in the history of the area for over one hundred years. Bridgeton basks in a slow, languid pace of living, but anything not available here is but a short drive across the majestic Neuse River Bridge. We are a transportation hub, the town has served as an important center for road, rail and ferry travel during its 100+ years of growth.

Bridgeton offers visitors and new residents alike gracious homes, friendly people, a quiet pace, and a progressive eye to the future. We are truly Southern Riverfront Living At It's Finest. We invite you to visit and find out for yourself.

Mayor Rodman L. Williams.
